

WEDDINGS

For nearly a century, The Drake® has remained the preferred Chicago destination of the world's most discerning individuals. It should come as no surprise that this distinguished address is also the premier choice for so many timeless wedding celebrations. From the breathtaking Grand Ballroom to the legendary Gold Coast Room, The Drake® proudly offers these spectacular venues for ceremonies, receptions, and rehearsal dinners.

Creating weddings without peer is the highest priority. Time after time, a dedicated and experienced staff provides the professional event management, catering, and support services to consistently achieve this goal. Spectacular weddings packages are available for your convenience. Or for a truly singular event, The Drake® can provide customized arrangements to exacting standards.

WEDDINGS

In 1924, HRH the Prince of Wales initiated The Drake's lasting tradition of serving as the Chicago home for the British royal family. Today, the property remains the quintessential and Chicago residence of American Presidents and A-list celebrities. So, whether the plans include a large-scale event with hundreds of guests, intimate nuptials with close friends and family, or something in between, a wedding at The Drake® is destined to endure for all time as an experience to remember.
